

My Family Tree

In the story, Abuelo says while pointing to his heart, “You’re from here, from my love and the love of all those before us.” Celebrate the ones who came before you by creating a family tree! In the boxes below, draw a picture of yourself and some members of your family. Write their names in the space below their picture.

